

WEBINAR ANNOUNCEMENT

Rural Resources: Grants, Training, and More!

Thursday, November 21, 2024, 2:00pm – 3:00pm, ET

On Thursday, November 21, 2024, at 2:00 pm ET, the Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Assistance's Rural Violent Crime Reduction Initiative (RVCRI) team will host a resource-filled webinar on funding opportunities, training opportunities, and specialized support available to rural law enforcement agencies!

Hear from expert presenters from leading organizations—including the Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA), the Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS) Office, the Federal Law Enforcement Training Centers (FLETC), the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children (NCMEC), and the Rural LISC Program—who will share insights on grants, training programs, and innovative strategies designed to empower rural communities.

This interactive session will equip you with practical tools and knowledge to enhance community safety, build agency capacity, and drive impactful change.

During this webinar, we will:

1. Learn about grant opportunities specifically tailored for rural law enforcement agencies.
2. Discover training programs that can enhance your department's skills and capabilities.
3. Explore resources to support economic development and community safety.
4. Participate in an interactive Q&A session.

Register for the Event

If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to the RVCRI team at RuralVCRI@policinginstitute.org

This webinar is funded through Grant No. 15PBJA-21-GK-03942-RURA from the Bureau of Justice Assistance, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed in this material are those of the contributors and do not necessarily represent the official position or policies of the U.S. Department of Justice.